RESPONSE OF RANDY D. AUSTIN TO OBJECTION TO CLAIM NO. 17330

On July 6, 2009, Randy D. Austin filed an Administrative Expense Claim Form against Delphi Corporation in the amount of $35,260 plus Outplacement Services.

The Claim has been assigned Claim No. 17330

Delphi has fulfilled the $35,260 claim.

Delphi has denied the Outplacement Services (Lee Hecht Harrison) specified in the Severance Agreement.

Lee Hecht Harrison verbally reported Delphi's denial of Outplacement Services the first week of July, 2009.

Lisa N. Fronk and Robert J. Spitak, both Delphi Human Resources, were contacted following the Delphi July shutdown. Both denied Lee Hecht Harrison outplacement services. The e-mail is attached.

Randy D. Austin, claimant, has accepted an employment offer November 22, 2009.

A financial remedy of $5000 is claimed.

Randy,

11/30/2009

The outplacement service information was described in two places in your separation package: (1) on page three under "Other Transition Assistance"; and on page seven, which is entitled "Career Transition Service". Page seven contained contact information. The package also stated (on page three) that the service should be commenced within 60 days of the date of separation. Unfortunately, the reason for denial of services is the expiration of the sixty day time period.

Lisa,

At a recent meeting of the Akron Job Center Networking group, John Erste mentioned that he was using Lee Hecht Harrison. John stated that he received contact information in his Delphi separation packet. I made contact with Lee Hecht Harrison using John's information who stated that Delphi denied LHH service.

The only mention of Lee Hecht Harrison in my Separation Package was in the Separation Agreement.

Please provide instructions on how to utilize the services defined by the Separation Agreement.
